A Japanese setting worthy of Belasco was the scene at the University last evening, when the members of the Alpha Pi fraternity entertained their many friends at a hop for which the land of the Mikado was called upon to furnish the furnishings. That it was a success goes without soying, and all the college folks declared it the joillest party ever given at the educational institution on the hill. Nothing was omitted to make the affair perfect in details, and the Japanese idea was carried out in every particular. The hosts of the evening, members of the fraternity, were Morris Forbes, Milton Liebman, Owen Nelson, Levi Riter, Corydon Higgins, Vernon Herbst, Thomas Varley, John Brown, George Dougall, Fred Hansen, Devereaux Jennings, James Wade, Andrew Sherman, Arthur Erickson, Harry Moore, Dals Pitt, George Riser, Roger Strobel, Samiel Ballard, William Dunn and Fred Scranton, The young men were ideal hosts and made all their guests feel perfectly at home, Named as patrons and patron-same were Goy, and Mrs. Wells, Senator and Mrs. Kearns, Mayor and Mrs. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. James Jennings, Dr. and Mrs. Kingsbury, Mr. and Mrs. McVichle, Mr. Kingsbury, Mr. and Mrs. McVichle, Mr.
